*I will be connecting with my students with Zoom every day at 9:00 and other days /time to go over math lessons with the students that want to connect with math. That time will vary day to day.

*I will be also communicating with students via email with questions they may have about lessons.

* I will be communicating with parents via Remind app.

* The students will have math and reading everyday along with science, health, grammar, or social studies.

* I have a link set up for read aloud daily.

* I also have optional work set up for students to work on every day.

* The students will have to fill out a check in daily for attendance.
